Say OM...

This summer, SBH Health System's began offering free weekly yoga classes for employees. Taught by BPHC's own J. Robin Moon, the program has taken off.

The yoga classes are part of an employee wellness series provided by SBH's Health and Wellness Committee. In the spring, SBH offered weekly meditation classes, another popular program, which will be returning in the fall.

Share your organization's wellness programs with our PPS by e-mailing Albert Alvarez.
