BPHC Members Receive $6.6 Million in Pay for Performance Distributions

BPHC organizations eligible for participation in Pay for Performance (P4P) measures were awarded $6.6 million in distributions. In total, 150 organizations received performance-based award distributions for DSRIP Measurement Year 2 (MY2) – the time period of July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2016.

P4P amounts were based on organizations' impact on HEDIS measures and their level of participation in our PPS. Organizations can use their P4P awards at their own discretion (see story below on how one community center used their award).

More information on P4P awards is contained in our March 20th All-Member webinar presentation. You may e-mail us at updates@bronxphc.org if you have any questions.

Bronx Youth Advocate for Their Community

Young people with Mary Mitchell Family and Youth Center (MMFYC) traveled to the March for Our Lives rally in Washington, DC to be a voice for policy change. Heidi Hynes, MMFYC Executive Director, utilized part of her organization's P4P award to allow additional youth to take the trip.

"You can't focus on your health without worrying about violence in your community," says Hynes. "Joining with peers from across the nation to advocate for their community's well-being was a moment of deep empowerment for our kids."
