Upcoming Stakeholder Meeting: Medicaid Medical and Transportation Providers

On behalf of the New York State Department of Health, Medical Answering Services (MAS) has announced stakeholder meetings for both Medicaid medical and transportation providers that will take place throughout the state in the upcoming weeks.

DOH oversees the administration of Medicaid transportation and works closely with its contracted transportation manager, MAS, to ensure quality services are provided to Medicaid enrollees. Regular communication with and feedback from stakeholders are important tools that assist in evaluating the quality of Medicaid transportation services.

DOH invites all medical and transportation providers to participate at one of several regional meetings. Online registration is required to participate.
